

PREVAIL® HOSPICE PROGRAM

QUIZ

1) Which of the following determine the appropriate Prevail® product to be used?

- a. Mobility
- b. Type of Incontinence
- c. Level & Frequency of urinary incontinence
- d. A, B, and C

2) Which product would be best for a female patient who has good mobility and light urinary incontinence?

- a. Adult Brief
- b. Protective Underwear
- c. Bladder Control Pad
- d. Underpad (Chux)

3) Bladder Control Pads & Male Guards should be used as an insert inside protective underwear or briefs.

- a. True
- b. False

4) Protective Underwear are for patients who experience moderate urinary leakage and bowel incontinence.

- a. True
- b. False

5) PER-FIT 360<sup>o</sup>™ Expandex™ Wings are a 2 tab system.

- a. True
- b. False

Continue to Back

PREVAIL® HOSPICE PROGRAM

QUIZ

6) Which of the following allow the PER-FIT 360<sup>o</sup>™ Next Generation Brief to create a favorable microclimate?

- a. 360° Breathable Zones
- b. Doublesorb™ Layers
- c. QUICK WICK® with MaxSoft™
- d. All of the above

7) Prevail® Super Absorbent Underpads should be NOT be used for which of the following:

- a. Protecting bed during wound change
- b. In place of an incontinent product and leaving patient open to air
- c. A & B

8) Prevail® Adult Washcloths are flushable.

- a. True
- b. False

9) When applying the PER-FIT 360<sup>o</sup>™ briefs and using the correct size and application technique the tabs will be placed:

- a. On the abdominal area
- b. On the hips

10) Reduce utilization by doing the following:

- a. Select appropriate Prevail® product based on individual needs
- b. Determine the correct size using the Prevail® sizing charts
- c. Use correct application technique when applying Prevail® products
- d. All of the above